

Musical Director wanted for Voice House Community Choir

Location: Bruntsfield, Edinburgh

The Voice House is a welcoming, non-auditioned Community Choir with over 30 years of singing together. Following the retirement of the present postholder we are looking for a new Musical Director to lead us from the end of August 2026.

We have:

- around 50 members
- a wide age range
- a varied repertoire
- weekly rehearsals on Wednesday evenings 18.50 to 20.50
- South Central Edinburgh
- Informal concerts once or twice a year

This is a part-time paid role. The remuneration offered is from £45 per hour.

For further details please go to the Vacancy section of our website edinburghvhchoir.org.uk where you will find the job description and person specification.

How to Apply

Please send a brief expression of interest outlining your experience of and approach to Community Choirs, along with a short CV to: cathkon@gmail.com

Closing date: 13th March 2026
